

Kristen Clark
 Professional Speaker,
 Published Writer,
 Gratitude Expert

Kristen Clark is an expert in developing and maintaining a positive attitude for personal success and she speaks frequently on this topic. Additionally, her articles have appeared in numerous online journals and magazines, while her inspirational short stories have been published by Chicken Soup for the Soul.

With over 20 years of experience working in both Small Business and Corporate America, Kristen has a wealth of practical business knowledge. She has successfully held positions in Sales, Management, Strategy & Planning, and Marketing, and is the Manager of Executive Communication and Employee Engagement for a Fortune 50 Technology company.

Trying times have shown Kristen the value of proactively managing her own career and she has effectively navigated work-force reductions, corporate downsizing, frequent reorganizations, and painful job reshuffling as a result of challenging market and economic conditions. She credits her ability to move onward and upward to her positive attitude.

Additionally, her various positions have afforded her experience in event planning and facilitating, and she understands the importance of hiring the right speaker for any event.
